

Mrs. Creighton is expected home soon is the report around here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stabenow were Jamestown callers on Wednesday last.

Geo. Dunwell was at Jamestown on Wednesday last, having some dental work done.

Byron Sisson and Winfield Scott have recently purchased Maytag Power washers for use in their laundries.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weiss and children were callers at the H. F. Hobert home on one evening last week.

Miss Grace Farley, who is principal of the Fingal school at Finagl, N. D., visited at home here during her vacation.

Doc McDonald of Jamestown recently purchased a Reo auto of Anton Fried & Son of this place. The car arrived at its destination on last Saturday and it will not be long now before we will see him in the new machine.

Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Bruce of Iowa arrived here on Thursday of last week and will stay up in this country for the summer. The reports are out to the effect that Mr. Bruce will purchase a house and make his home in the country. Their many friends welcome them back to this berg.

Chas. Legge recently purchased a set of harness in this berg.

Fred O. Fried was a Jamestown caller on Monday last.

Henry Reynolds came to town Saturday last and got stuck almost at the town limits.

Ray L. Dorson has hired out to Martiu Benson to work for him during the spring season.

Miss Iva Coleman and Miss Edith Dahl, the two school mams of this place were Jamestown visitors on Saturday 1st.

Rev. Herbig left on Friday for Fort Rice, N. D., where he will conduct services there on Sunday the 13th. He will return and there will be services at the M. E. church here on the following Sunday.

Alfred Fowler, who has recently arrived, was a caller here on one day last week. He says that he is intending to farm near Fargo and has rented an 80 acre farm and will put it in potatoes this summer.

The B. B. sewing club met with Mrs. E. J. Clamp on the 26th of March, and at Mrs. W. L. Fuller's on the 2nd of this month, and the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hobert. Quite an interest is being aroused by the men of the town as to what kind of a club this is and just what it is intended for.

J. N. Johnson was a Jamestown caller on Monday.

Walter Davis will work for Will Squire this spring.

Geo. Whipple of Urbana called at out little berg on Friday last.

Ed Stroh of Eckleson was here on business on Monday. He said that the roads were in very bad shape.

Miss Margaret Farley, who is teaching school at New Rockford visited at her home during the Easter vacation.

T. O. Weatherbee drove to the Andrew Fluetsch farm on Saturday last and purchased a yearling calf.

Byron Sisson s having a cistern dug and intends having his house spouted to save all the rain water this summer.

E. J. Hayes was up from Urbana on Saturday shopping. He stated that he expected to use his tractor gas engine this spring as he had 700 acres to plow. He informed the writer that his son has purchased an auto of More Bros. at Wimbledon, N. D.

The rate at which Anton Fried & Son are putting out disc harrows this spring must surely indicate that there is going to be a lot of seed disced in this spring. We hope that the season will be favorable so that the farmers will reap a large harvest even tho they disc it in.