

Mrs. Wm. Price is visiting relatives at Jamestown for a few days.

James Dresser is at his old stand in the bank these days after a two weeks visit at the cities.

Mrs. Will Klimes mother, arrived from Minnesota on Friday to visit her daughter for some time.

Mrs. Thurston of Oakes, a sister of Mrs. H. F. Hoert of this place, is visiting with her for a few days.

A. L. Orage returned to Fargo on Friday evening after a couple of days visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jones.

L. B. Steaks lost a very valuable horse on Sunday night. The horse was taken sick sometime during the afternoon and died about midnight.

L. B. Steaks left on Friday for Iowa to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, F. S. Benar who died on Thursday night and the sad news was wired to the relatives at this berg.

C. V. Clamp is expecting a carload of ice from Valley City these days. He will store it in the ice house near his store and use it for cold drinks this summer.

Owing to the lateness in receiving the Spiritwood news, we were compelled to leave a good share out of this issue, much to our regret. The mail has been coming in very irregular, and no blame is placed on our editor.

The implement dealers convention, which took place at Fargo on the 5th and 6th and 7th of this month, was a grand success, the wholesalers had a fine exhibit there and a large crowd was in attendance.

The many friends of Mrs. Elliott, who lived in this neighborhood for a good many years, will be saddened to learn of her death which occurred on Friday, the 7th of February at her home in Fargo. Mrs. Elliott has been bedfast for a long time and her demise will be a godsend to her.

Quite a delegation from Spiritwood went to Fargo on Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Elliott. Among those who went were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hambly, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farley, Frank Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kane. Most of them returned Monday. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon.

Our little girl was the scene of a lot of drunkenness last Sunday. We note that it is almost a common occurrence and when the "gang" gets on their wild rampage around town, it makes it disagreeable for everybody, as they are apt to insult a persons on the street. It is time that the law was taken in hand administered in the right channels, and we understand that this is the intention of certain parties when this happens again.

Rev. Herbig is laid up with an attack of a gripper.

Merchant Clamp's gas lights were laid up for repairs for a couple of nights last week.

Knauf and Knauf of Jamestown have a large sale advertised to come off in the near future around Pingree.

Mrs. Wm. Squire, who recently had the misfortune to break her arm, is around again and is much improved.

Theo. Price is still "batching" it as his wife has not returned from Mandan, where she went to visit her parents.

Fred Fried is a visitor at Minneapolis. He will return in time to take in the hardware dealers convention at Grand Forks, which will be held the 15th of this month.

This vicinity was visited with a young blizzard last Monday, the wind having started in the morning and increased until about dinner time when it was at its worst.

Thos. Hecock is running his shop full blast now and says that business is good. He contemplates building a large ice house to preserve ice for his meat business for the coming summer.

Wm. Farley, who lives south of this place, has purchased the James E. Jones residence in south Jamestown, where he expects to move next fall and spend his declining years. While Mr. Farley is not yet a very old man, he has earned a rest.

A. L. Orage of Fargo, is here visiting with his sister, Mrs. Jones, and also looking after business matters. Bert looks fine and needless to say, must be making good, for his face shows it without any words being spoken.

Dr. Golseth, the eye, ear, nose and throat specialist of Jamestown, was called to the Martin Rappley home on Friday last to attend one of their little boys, who is suffering with measles and has an attack of the appendicitis. It seems that he is also having trouble with one of his ears.

FIRE PREVENTION APPEAL.

New York Chief Asks Co-operation in Reducing Conflagrations.
The following appeal has been sent out by Joseph Johnson, fire commissioner of New York city:
Fire is a natural element. Even the best fire fighting force in the world is a Canute, vainly commanding it to stop, when once a conflagration takes full sway over a city. Yet we must fight it unceasingly and seek to reduce to a mere possibility the great, all destroying fire. Every fire, however small, is a potential conflagration. Since the beginning of the paid department in New York more than 500,000 fires have been put out. Our city still stands. It stands because of the vigilance, swiftness and courage of our men.
Now let us together seek to reduce the awful toll of life and property. It can be done by enlightened carelessness in your personal and business habits. Mere thoughtlessness with matches, cigars and cigarettes causes enormous loss. Let us begin to treat the match thrower as we treat the heedless spitter. Death follows the course of each. Join with us in our preventive efforts, and teach your children that fire is not a plaything.
Come, too, with the fire department in its crusade against incendiarism, which sets one fire in four. Fight with us against lax laws, which permit insurance companies to offer an inducement to arson in the form of a policy.

Her Method.
"Have you seen Mayme today?"
"Not today."
"Thursday is Clara's birthday."
"Well?"
"Mayme is getting up a surprise on her."
"I knew Mayme would get even with Clara for saying she couldn't sing."
