Fred Fried was a Eckleson caller on Thursday last.

S. B. McLain was a caller here on Wednesday on business.

Fred O. Fried was a Jamestown caller on Saturday last on business.

Chas. Eastman recently purchased a yearling calf of Mrs. Wynes of this place.

Joe Hoffert of Eckleson, was a city visitor on Thursday last returning the same day.

Leo Kline who lives north from Eckleson, called here one day last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dorson visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davison on Sunday last.

Rev. Herbig was a Jamestown caller one day last week, and while there he had some dental work done.

Editor recently purchased a cow and calf of John Vanvick. He is going to cut down the cost of living by living as much as possible on milk.

A. W. Dunwell and wife left for Fargo on Wednesday where Mrs. Dunwell will be under the care of good doctors, as she is suffering from appendicitis.

Quite a crowd attended the Sunday services on the 23rd inst. Rev. Herbig preached a forcible sermon and was well commended for it. Services again next Sunday at the regular time.

Frank Papstein recently returned from Hunters Hot Springs, Montana and at the present time is in Jamestown, where he has secured a very nice position with Mr. Kelly. He has rented his section of land to his brother, Fred, who will run it the coming summer.

It is reported that a new machine company has been organized at this place, we are not fully aware who the stockholders are at this time but a number of them are known. As to their building a machine hall to do business in, is a question so far, but what really will happen in this berg is not known as yet. It is reported that they will handle a complete line of International goods, but the fact has not been verified. We wish them success in their new venture, however.

Emil Frey of Jamestown was a visitor at this berg on Wednesday last. He was taking an agent of the Independent Harvester Co. around for the purpose of interesting the farmers in the company and getting their orders for stock. Reports are out around this berg that this is one of the smoothest games of swindle that has ever come under the eye of the government and that the Federal authorities have had this case under investigation for a long time and are not as yet prepared to file suit against them.

L. B. Stooks is expected home at any time now.

Mrs. Geo. E. Dunwell was laid up with the gripe on Saturday last.

Quite a number of farmers are hauling their grain to town these days.

Geo. Brownson Sr., was a Jamestown caller on business on Thursday last.

Ludvig Vanrick of this place is a new subscriber to the Gazette and Bugle.

Harry Sisson has purchased a Maytag wash machine and a one horse power engine to do his washing.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gleason of Jamestown, visited at the home of H. F. Hoberts' over the Sabbath.

Robt. Goodman of Jamestown, visited relatives and friends at Spiritwood over Saturday and Sunday.

Will Price and Otto Rick have purchased a No. 2 New Grain grader from Anton Fried & Son of this place.

Eric Lundeen and wife left on Monday evening for Rochester, Minn., where the latter will undergo an operation.

Anton Fried of Wimbledon arrived home from California recently, after spending some months out on the coast.

Max Rick of this place left on Tuesday last for Hunters Hot Springs, Mont. to take treatment for rheumatism, from which he has been suffering for some time.

Born to Geo. Kienk and wife on last Sunday night a little girl. Mother and child are doing fine at this writing and papa has a beam of sunshine on his face that is hard to duplicate except by those who have the same experience. Here's wishing them all good luck. Dr. Guest was the attending physician.

Clifford Hobert was seriously hurt on Monday afternoon last on the public school grounds. He was running around on the grounds and was driving a horse out of the yard and when close to the horse it kicked back and struck Mr. Clifford a little below the temple and he was knocked unconscious for some time. In the evening the doctor was called to care for him. He is suffering quite badly at the present time, but is expected to get along nicely in a few days.
