

E. J. Clamp is very busy invoicing.

Chas. Mahoney left on a business trip.

Martin Benson and Myron Sisson were in town today.

Otto Stuff is sick with an attack of the grippe.

Miss White of Jamestown was a visitor at the Farley home.

Rounseville and Doty unloaded a car of lumber and coal this week.

James Dresser expects to leave for a visit to St. Paul, in a few days.

Arthur Johnson and Miss Edna Johnson from Berera, N. D., are visiting with Mrs. George Hamblly.

Ralph Dresser left for St. Paul, where he anticipates visiting with his brother, and enjoy a general good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon are preparing to take their trip west, where they no doubt will enjoy better weather than the cold winters of North Dakota.

Fred Fried has the hardware store nicely floored with maple. Mr. Fried is much pleased with the work and believes the store will be much warmer.

There will be preaching at the M. E. church by Rev. Herbig every Sunday at 3 and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath school at 2 p. m. Everybody welcome. Prayer meeting every Thursday evening.

Kensal News Items

On Sunday afternoon January 12th at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knud Christensen occurred the marriage of their daughter, Maren Christine to Erik L. Chistensen, the ceremony being performed by Rev. O. G. Naeseth of Valley City. The bride was beautifully gowned in a white messaline dress trimmed with embroidered net and pearl trimming, and she carried beautiful brides bouquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marie, as bridesmaid, who was attired in a blue messaline dress, the groom wore the conventional black, and was attended by George E. Berg as best man. The bride was given away by her father. As the bridal party descended the stairway, Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Kirkeby of Valley City. Only relatives and immediate friends were present at the wedding, the out of town guests being Mrs. Cal C. Pederson of Maple Creek, Sask., Ruth Kirkeby of Valley City, Inger Sorenson, John Larson and Lars Anderson of Carrington. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the close of the ceremony. The bride and groom left on 106 the same evening for a brief honeymoon to points in the east. The brides going away gown was a brown tailored serge. Mr. and Mrs. Christensen will be at home to their many friends after Feb. 12th.

Mrs. H. A. Hammersteadt left last week for Illinois, where she will spend a couple of months with relatives.

E. B. Martin is the new assistant at the Nack blacksmith shop.

S. L. Ferguson and D. S. Greenen went to Fargo the first of the week, the former to serve on the Federal jury, and the latter to attend the grain growers convention being held in that city.

C. E. Thayer returned from his eastern trip the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Chas. Swanson of Brinsmade is a guest at the Larson and Boo homes this week.

Arthur Brewer Sundayed with his sister, Miss Anna, in Valley City.

Wilfred Heaney spent Thursday evening here with friends.

Miss Clara Rudd of St. Paul arrived on Wednesday morning, for a visit at the P. M. Hanson home.

Miss Anna Brewer arrived home on Monday evening and left the following morning for Hingham, Mont., to look after her land interests there.

Mrs. O. J. Croonquist entertained a party of friends at 6 o'clock dinner, last Sunday.

Max Feckler of McHenry is spending a few days at home.

Mrs. F. L. Thompson of Carrington attended the shower given by the R. N. A. Lodge last Friday evening at the Feckler home, in honor of Miss Christine Christensen.

Last Friday evening at the Feckler home the members of the R. N. A. Lodge pleasantly surprised one of their members, Miss Christine Christensen by giving her a miscellaneous shower. As the guests descended the stairway after having removed their wraps, they showered the bride to be with the numerous parcels, the contents of all which were beautiful and useful articles. The evening was spent in cards, music and conversation. At midnight a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

NOTICE OF CHATTEL MORTGAGE SALE

Notice is hereby given that default has been made in the conditions of that certain Mortgage made by O. W. Hensal of Courtenay, County of Stutsman, and State of North Dakota, Mortgagee, to Peter Falk of Courtenay, County of Stutsman, and State of North Dakota, Mortgagee, dated the 20th day of May, 1912, to secure the following indebtedness, to-wit:

One certain promissory note for $108, payable to Peter Falk, dated May 20th, 1912, due October 1st, 1912, with interest thereon at the rate of 12 per cent per annum which Mortgage was duly filed in the office of Register of Deeds of Stutsman county, state of North Dakota, 21st day of May, 1912, at 11:45 o'clock a. m. and which default is of the following nature, to-wit: the non-payment of said note or any part thereof due and there is claimed to be due on said Mortgage at the date of this notice, the sum of one hundred sixteen and 64-100 dollars for principal and interest.

And that said Mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the personal property in such Mortgage and hereinafter described, at public auction, agreeably to the statutes in such case made and provided, at front door of the fire hall in the village of Courtenay in the County of Stutsman, State of North Dakota, at the hour of 3 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, the 25th day of January, 1913. That personal property which will be sold to satisfy said Mortgage is described as follows, to-wit:

One bay mare 6 years old, weight about 1150 pounds, named "Daisy"

Peter Falk, Mortgagee
W. H. Padden, Attorney for Mortgagee, Courtenay, North Dakota.