

Local Happenings of the Week

Frank Marshke has invested in a new hay loader.

F. O. Fried took in the auction sale at P. S. Gospodor's on Monday last.

Prayer meeting every Thursday night at the parsonage. Everyone is invited to come.

Robert Stabenow has purchased a new Kimball piano and expects to have it in a few days. He purchased it from the Kimball people in Chicago.

E. Foster with Hackett Gates Hurty Co., of St. Paul, called on his trade here on Tuesday evening.

Ye editor is having a private telephone line erected between his house and Anton Fried Son hardware store.

Geo. Scott has purchased a new Fairbank Morse gasoline engine and intends to run a feed mill to grind feed for his stock.

R. O. Hazard with the J. I. Case Plow Works, of Minneapolis, was a visitor here on the 18th, taking care of his trade.

E. J. Hayes of Urbana was a caller here on business on Tuesday and while here purchased a gasoline engine to run the washing machine.

The Kimball piano man was here on Tuesday morning looking after piano sales and incidentally called on Robt. Stabenow to look after their new piano.

Deputy Sheriff Olson of this county was here on Wednesday last collecting back personal taxes. He left on No. 120 for Valley City, from there he will go to Courtenay and Kensal on the same business.

Bert Sayre was a caller here on Monday. He and his son and daughter-in-law have recently returned from California and they say that they are glad to get back to North Dakota. Well who wouldn't be, when we have such balmy weather, as we are having at this writing, at this time of the year? It took "Bud" just 16 days to make the trip back with a car, this is quite a long time but considering the length of the trip they did quite well.

Mrs. Ed. Reidasch is on the sick list.

P. E. Brown was a Wimbledon visitor on Friday last.

Rob't Stabenow has invested in a new cream separator.

J. H. Wynes of Ypsilanti, was a visitor here one day last week.

Peter Knudson of Eckleson was a caller here on Sunday last. He visited at the Olamp home.

A number from here attended the party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto M. Johnson at Eckleson.

Geo. Stroh was a caller here on Monday last, and while here purchased a new J. I. Case gang plow of Anton Fried & Son.

Mr. LeDuc of Minneapolis, with the P. and O. Plow Co., was a caller here on business on Monday evening.

R. H. Tuthill of Ypsilanti has rented his farm buildings for the winter and expects to move into Jamestown and take it easy after the long tiresome summer.

The McLain and Rappley case came off last week at Jamestown. The complaint was assault and battery, by McLain against Rappley.

There was a turkey shoot at Eckleson on Monday night, quite a number from here attending. There was also a party at the home of Otto M. Johnson.

The cold weather seems to hold off a lot better than most of the people expected and as a result we are not going to have such a long tedious winter as we expected and as it looked at the start.

Mr. Otto Stuff pulled the E. J. Olamp auto to Jamestown on Monday, to have overhauled, as something went wrong with it not long ago and it had to be taken apart to get fixed up. He is having a house built for it, on its return to our little berg.

Geo. McLain was in town on Monday. He has invested in a new Buick auto and intends to take life easy this winter. He bought a 30 horse power car and probably intends riding through the snow this winter. This is the third car he has had this summer.