

Local Happenings of the Week

Quite a number of renters are changing farms this year.

Ruth and Lloyd Stoaks were Jamestown callers on Tuesday.

Quite a bit of grain is being hauled into town these days.

Anton Fried of Wimbledon was a city visitor one day last week.

John Walter of near Ypsilanti, was a caller on business on Tuesday.

Ye editor and wife visited at the Erick Lundeen home on Sunday last.

Ray Dorson has been staying with M. E. Dorson for a couple of days.

Fred Freid was a Jamestown caller on Tuesday evening to take in the election returns.

The Stoaks and Bruce threshing rig finished business on Tuesday last, and then went and voted.

Rev. Herbig spent last Sunday at his regular preaching point, east of Ypsilanti, returning home on last Tuesday.

Election went past quietly and most of the returns went to headquarters as soon as the judges finished counting.

The N. P. railway have another operator now at this place, there being three men employed now instead of two.

J. H. Doty of St. Peter arrived here Wednesday morning to take stock at the Rounseville & Doty and Fried transfer.

Mr. Kutz of Kensal, is visiting with his brother Ed. Kutz, who has rented the Bob Marshall farm, south of town.

Peter Karpen was a city visitor on one day last week. He was around soliciting votes for his election on Tuesday last.

Raymond Lang of Fargo, who is working as traveling salesman for the M. Rumely Co., of the same place, was a visitor here last Monday.

Mr. Dennison, of north of Bloom was another man around here getting acquainted with the voters before election. He was running for county commissioner.

Carl Knudson had an auction sale west of Eckleson on Nov. 5th. He is moving west this fall and intends taking up a homestead.

Mr. Bemis from Courtenay is down on his farm west of town, getting his flax threshed. He has a large quantity of wilt proof flax and intends holding it till spring, when he can get a good price for the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Melchert departed from our midst for Iowa last Tuesday. They have been staying at the Bruce farm south of town all summer. There many friends will be sorry to see them go from among us.

We will ask that all our subscribers will bear with ye editor in that the paper is not just what it ought to be of late owing to the rush of business and the transfer of the hardware business of Rounseville and Doty to Anton Fried and Son, of this place. However, we expect to have more time in the near future to take care of it and we hope you will overlook it if the paper is not up to where it ought to be.

Barney Sorm was a caller here on Tuesday.

Emil Gehlart was a city visitor on Tuesday last.

The W. J. Scott auction came off as advertised and everything sold quite well.

Bert Orange's threshing rig is at present on the And. Fluetsch farm, west of town.

Mrs. H. F. Hobert, and two sons were Jamestown callers on one day last week.

W. R. Hayes, Herb Gordon and Martin Graven were judges at the election on Tuesday.

Fred Thoms has purchased a new Fairbanks-Morse gasoline engine of Anton Fried and Son.

Hirman Gosset has moved down on the old N. P. Jensen farm southwest of town.

Mr. Foster, with the Hacket, Gates Hurty Hardware Co., of St. Paul, was present at the invoicing of the Rounseville & Doty hardware stock, last Wednesday.

Invoice was taken on Wednesday and Thursday of the hardware and machine stock of Rounseville & Doty. As soon as it was finished Anton Fried & son took charge.

ARMAGEDDON OF THE SCRIPTURES

Startling Presentation of Coming Events.

PASTOR RUSSELL'S VIEWS.

Churches of All Denominations and the Civil Powers of Earth Are About to Unite in Common Cause—Powerful Influence Preparing For the Battle of Armageddon—A Reign of Anarchy Will Be the Result of the Warfare Until The Messiah Takes Control.

(Revelation xvi, 16.) The speaker said: Armageddon in the Hebrew signifies the "Hill of Megiddo," or Mount of Destruction. It was famous as a battlefield in Old Testament times.

The Lord has seen fit to associate the name Armageddon, with the great controversy between Truth and Error, right and wrong, God and Mammon, with which this Age will close, perish, and the New Age of Messiah's glory be ushered in. He has purposely used highly symbolical figures of speech in the last book of the Bible, evidently with a view to hiding certain important truths until the due time for their revelation. But even in the due time, the Bible assures us, "None of the wicked shall understand" (Daniel xii, 9, 10)—none who are out of heart harmony with God—but only the wise of His people—the "wise virgin" class of the Master's parable.

I have long avoided presentation of my understanding of our text and its context. I take it up now by request and because I believe it is due time to be understood. I disclaim any special inspiration. In some particulars my views agree with those of other Bible students, and in other respects they disagree. Each hearer must use his own judgment, do his own Bible study, and reach his own conclusions.

Kindly remember that I am not responsible for the figures of speech used by the Lord. My interpretations do indeed constitute a terrible arraignment of institutions which we have all revered and which embrace good people, of good words and good works. God's

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 3. — The Brooklyn Academy of Music was crowded to the limit today to hear Pastor Russell's discourse on the "Battle of Armageddon." His text was: "He gathered them together unto a place called in the Hebrew tongue 'Armageddon.'"