CRERAR CREIGHTON, SPIRITWOOD, AND MISS NOLTIMIER, VALLEY
CITY, NOW HUSBAND AND WIFE

The Valley City Times-Record, of October 5th, has the following account of the Creighton-Noltimier wedding:

This noon at the farm home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Noltimier, and amid an assemblage of forty immediate friends and relatives, occurred the marriage of Miss Lazzette Charlotte Noltimier of this city, and Crerar Elmer Creighton of Spiritwood.

Promptly at 12 o'clock, Mrs. Lewis Schroeder, presiding at the piano, began to play the bridal music of Lohengren, and the groom and Rev. C. F. Bublitz took their places at the improvised altar between the parlors, which was a bower of smilax, asparagus feans, red roses and carnations. Then came little Blanche Hoff, a niece of the groom, in dainty white, carrying a basket of red roses and lilies of the valley; following came Miss Reva Naltiemier, sister of the bride, gowned in filmy white, carrying the ring hidden in an immense red rose. The bride entered alone. She looked very sweet and pretty in an exquisite gown of white marquise and lace over white satin and wore a maline handeau intertwined with rosebuds and lillies of the valley in her hair and carried a handsome shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

An elaborate six course wedding breakfast served from small tables immediate followed the ceremony. The home was lavishly decorated with autumn foliage or red and green and red roses and carnations. The young women who assisted in serving were the Misses Alett, Schroeder, Vola Schroeder, Louise Bublitz and Miss Bertha Schulz dispensed the wedding cake boxes, which were dainty affairs in white. The gifts were unusually handsome and numerous. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Geo. Lund and son of Southport, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Huff and daughter of Portland, Oregon, Mrs. Anna Creighton, Ethel Creighton and James Dresser all of Spiritwood, and Miss Kate Creighton and Alice Creighton of Pingree, and Dr. S. Morris of Wallace, Nova Scotia.

The happy couple departed on the evening train for Minneapolis and St. Paul, where they will visit with relatives for a short time, as they are intending to take an extended trip a little later in the season. They will return and be at home after December 1st, in Spiritwood, where Mr. Creighton is a very prosperous farmer and has many other interests.

Owing to some delay in the mail, the Spiritwood news did not reach here in time for publication. It is regretted very much that this had to occur, but it is no fault of Editor Dunwell, as he mailed the same in plenty of time, which should had reached here Wednesday, but has not been seen up to the time of going to press. We will try and see that this occurrence is not repeated.

Any of the teachers in the country districts are welcome to send in their monthly reports to the Courtenay Gazette. All other news of the neighborhood will also be appreciated.
