

The auction sale held by Albert Trapp, south of here Tuesday, was largely attended, and good prices were realized from the large list offered for sale. It is with much regret that the Gazette announces the retiring of Mr. Trapp from farming here, for he has proven one of the best farmers around here. He expects to move in a short time to St. Paul, where he and his wife will take life a little easier.

---