
Locates Here.

D. Walks, a brother of Robert Walks, has rented the old Sam Syverson place, northeast of here and is moving onto the same. His family arrived here last Saturday morning from near Vancouver, Canada, where they have resided the past year and a half. Mr. Walks formerly resided near Wimbledon. He has decided that North Dakota is about as good a place to stay as he has found.
