

Sold His Land

F. B. Webber, one of our progressive farmers living north of town, has sold his fine land to the Dennsteadt Bros, realizing a good price for the three quarters. Mr. Webber gives possession in the fall, at which time he will have an auction sale of all his personal property after which he will move with his family to Fargo.

Mr. Webber, by careful farming, has accumulated a nice sum of money, coming here with practically nothing except discouragement, but by hard work is able to retire at an age when he can enjoy himself.

The land is considered as good as any in the state, every foot of it being under cultivation. While their many friends regret their leaving Courtenay, it is a pleasure to know that they have been rewarded for their labors here. Mr. Webber says that he can always put in a good word for this community.
