

F. B. Webber, living north of town, has purchased the material for a large new barn which he will build. Mr. Webber is one of our enterprising farmers and believes in having his place appear in an up-to-date manner. The barn will be a fine structure when completed.