

CHARGED WITH LIBEL—

Will H. Wright, publisher of the Woodworth Rustler has been sued by Dr. M. O. Hunter, a dentist.. The complaint alleges that by the publication of a derogatory statement concerning him in the Woodworth Rustler, the plaintiff is damaged and his reputation injured thereby.

It seems that Dr. Hunter has been filling dates and teeth at that place at frequent periods for several months and recently he failed to arrive on an announced date and the language used in the paper in regards to the doctor, was objected to by the physician, who started criminal proceedings against Editor Wright.

A preliminary hearing was held in Jamestown Wednesday morning and Mr. Wright was held to the district court, which begins its next term June 9th.

Editor Wright was formerly located at Wimbledon and went to Woodworth, which is located in the western part of the county and started the paper a little over a year ago.
