

Laid to Rest

Kindred Tribune: The funeral over the remains of Eugene Blille, whose obituary was printed in last week's issue, was held from the Kindred church last Friday afternoon. Rev. Johnson spoke in the English and Rev. Wisness of Hickson, spoke in the Norwegian language. The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing friends of the deceased, and the many beautiful floral offerings, from individuals, village, school and Sons of Norway were silent tributes of the esteem in which he was held. A wreath in the form of a purse of money, to go to the mission fund, from Mr. M. Flatla of Hikson, was also presented.

Edwin Dahlen, Peder A. Dahlen, Alvin Dahlen, Theodore Swenson, Raymond Dahlen and Johnny Swenson bore the casket to its final resting place. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery beside his brother George and sister Ruth, who had preceded him to the Great Beyond.

Relatives in attendance from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Jacobson and Melford Blille of Waukon, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. John Fladland of Hannaford, and Miss Martina Fladland of Fargo. His brother Adolph of Waukon was unable to come.
