

Frank Paulson received a telegram yesterday stating that Walter Guest had died at his home near Weyburn, Sask., that morning. Only a few days ago a letter was received here from the Guests stating that they were all well, so evidently his death had come on suddenly, but no details were given in the telegram. Walter was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Guest, formerly of Hannaford, and a grandson of Mrs. R. W. Martin, of this village.