

B. Hoffman of Cooperstown died last Thursday after a long and gallant fight for his life against disease, his splendid physique enabling him to stand up for a long time under suffering that would have carried off a less robust man. Deceased was taken to the old home in Illinois for interment, Dr. O. H. Hoffman accompanying his father's body. Mrs. B. Hoffman is not sufficiently strong to make the long journey to Illinois.