

Baby Drowns In Washtub

The Joe Kalvik family, formerly of this community, now living northwest of Cooperstown, was visited by a sad accident Friday afternoon when their 14-months-old baby fell into a tubful of water and drowned.

Mr. and Mrs. Kalvik and the children had come to Cooperstown, and while Mr. Kalvik was doing some trading in town, Mrs. Kalvik with the children were visiting at the Sig Vigesaa home. While there the little tot, who was just learning to walk, wandered into another room, from where the other people were, and when a few minutes later the mother went to look for her, she was found dead in the tub of water which was standing on the floor.

The doctor was immediately called but nothing could be done to restore life.

The funeral was held Saturday and the body laid to rest in the Union cemetery.

The bereaved family has the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community in their hour of sorrow.
