

Several from Dazey went to Hansford Tuesday to attend the dance given by the Degree of Honor.

Miss Marion Cyoil went to Valley City Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving vacation with home folks.

G. M. Rasmussen autoed to Valley City for a short visit on business matters.

Miss Emma Senff went to Valley City to have her eyes tested.

Several of the Dazey young folks went to Rogers Thursday to attend the dance and all reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mattson returned to Dazey Saturday from Valley City where Walt has been receiving treatment for blood poison.

O. T. Olson shipped a carload of cattle to St. Paul Saturday.

Marie Opegard was a Coopers-town visitor Wednesday between trains.

Mrs. Ole Opegard and Miss Emma Johnson went down to Fargo Tuesday for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Trangsgaard went to Kindred, N. D., Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with home folks. She returned Saturday.

Miss Pearl Johnson went down to Valley City Wednesday for a short visit.

Miss Geraldine Torgerson went down to Valley City Thursday for a short visit, returning Saturday.

Miss Helena Peterson was a passenger for Valley City Saturday.

ESTRAYED—One light brown cow giving milk; one brown heifer calf, white head, 1½ years old. Finder kindly notify Joe Owen, Dazey, N. Dak.

Mrs. W. H. Osborne Is Called by Death

The Grim Reaper has again entered our community and taken from our midst Mrs. W. H. Osborne, who passed away at her home in Dazey at 10:30 Monday, November 21st.

The funeral services were held at the home and at the M. E. Church, Rev. Victor Phillips conducting the services.

Interment was made in the local cemetery.

OBITUARY

Cora A. Hyatt was born in Yates County, New York State, on the 5th day of June, in the year 1845, being 76 years, 5 months, and 16 days old.

In 1869, while holding her residence in Michigan, she was united in marriage to William H. Osborne.

To this union seven children were born, two daughters and five sons.

In the year 1882 Mr. and Mrs. Osborne, with their family, came to North Dakota, settling on a farm east of Dazey, and here for many years they gave of their time, energy and material possessions for the uplift of the community.

On Jan. 17th, 1914, Mr. Osborne was called to his Eternal Home, and they who for many years had walked together were separated.

During Mrs. Osborne's sojourn of forty years in this community, she has won for herself many friends. Her thoughtfulness for others, her kindly disposition, her readiness to help all worthy causes is well known. As a Christian Gentlewoman she has had a wholesome influence upon the lives which she has touched.

For many years she has been a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Dazey; and now that she has been promoted from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant she will not be a stranger for the Lord knows His own and is known to them.

The sympathies of this entire community are with the family who cannot help but feel keenly their loss. Those who are left to look forward to the meeting on the other side are, two daughter, Mrs. Caldwell, of Wichita, Kansas; and Mrs. Charles England, of Vancouver, B. C.; five sons, William E. Osborne, of Dazey, N. D.; John Osborne, of Fargo, N. D.; Ira J. Osborne, of Calgary, Canada; Byron L. Osborne, of Dazey, N. D.; and the Rev. Elmer H. Osborne, of Calgary, Canada. Besides these there are twenty-three grandchildren, besides other relatives and multitudes of friends.

SIBLEY TRAIL

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Curtis visited at the Oscar Mosher home Sunday.

Glade Minch has been confined to the house with eye trouble the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mosher and mother, Mrs. Elmer Mosher, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ladbury, Mr. and Mrs. Max Ladbury and Misses Beatrice and Emma Ladbury spent Thanksgiving Day at the Ed Ladbury home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Carlson spent Sunday evening at the Mark Curtis home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Curtis and Mr. Henry Curtis, and Howard and Muriel Curtis spent Thanksgiving Day at Mrs. Eva Curtis' home.

Miss Gladys Mosher has gone to Dazey to take the place of her mother, who has returned home, in the care of Mrs. Emmet Mosher who has been seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ladbury were visitors Sunday at the Fred Mosher home.