

Mrs. Nels Sandvig Died

Mrs. Nels Sandvig died at a Fargo hospital at 1:40 a. m. Saturday, February 3rd, after an illness of a little more than a week.

Mrs. Sandvig was born in Skjol, near Stavanger, Norway, November 1st, 1897, thus making her at the time of her death only a little over twenty-five years old. Together with her husband and an infant son, she arrived in Hannaford from Norway in September last year, and the family had been making their home with Gabriel Malmin since that time.

Deceased is survived by her husband, and two sons, the older less two years of age, and the younger only a few days old; a sister, Mrs. Gabriel Malmin; and three brothers, Jacob A. Lee and Aadne Lee, in Iowa, and John A. Lee here, who all have the sincerest sympathy of the entire community in this very great bereavement.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon, February 5th, at 2:00 o'clock from the Lutheran church, Rev. George S. Natwick officiating.
