

Word was received here this afternoon that H. C. Storey, of Wimbledon, had died at his home in that village on Sunday, March 6th. Mr. Storey was an insurance man and is well known in this village, having been a frequent business visitor here.