

Olof Edland was a visitor briefly in this village last week. He was on his way from Minneapolis, where he has been spending the past summer, to his farm in Montana. Former Hannaford friends of Mr. Edland were surprised to learn that he had entered the state of matrimony about a month ago.