

Haugelund-Haugen

Miss Elsie Haugelund became the wife of Carl J. Haugen in a wedding solemnized at Union Church in Greenfield township Tuesday, June 20, at which Rev. Holland officiated.

The groom is the son of John J. Haugen, prominent Greenfield resident, and has been running his father's big farm, and is held in high esteem by all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jordet of Mapleton, Minn., and has spent a couple of years in the Greenfield country, during which time she has won many friends.

The wedding took place at eleven o'clock Thursday morning. The bride was attended by Miss Julia Jordet, sister of the bride, and Herman Haugen, brother of the groom, was best man. Immediately following the ceremony at the church, the large wedding party retired to the home of John J. Haugen, where a dinner and reception in honor of the newly-weds, and also of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Haugen, who were married in March, was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Haugen have the best wishes of a great circle of home friends.—Sentinel-Courier.
