

Former Hannaford Girl Married

Hannah Anundson United in Marriage to Young Man in Buffalo

The following item from a Buffalo New York, newspaper, will be of interest to our readers, as Miss Johanna Anundson, the bride, is the daughter of Halvor Anundson, of this village. Miss Anundson has been employed in Buffalo for the past eight years.

"At 5 o'clock Christmas eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Herrington, 38 Emerson place, occurred the marriage of their son, Guy B. to Miss Johanna Anundson, a charming young lady whose home had previously been in North Dakota but who with her sister is living in the city. The happy couple were accompanied to the altar by Leroy R. Ruaff and the bride's sister, Miss Helga Anundson. The ring ceremony was used by Pastor Ferral, who officiated. Following the season of congratulations a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Herrington will make their home at 38 Emerson place for a season. The groom is a traveling salesman and favorably known."
