

Forthun-Hoff

Wedding

Fargo Forum: The First Lutheran church was the scene of a pretty wedding at high noon Thursday when Miss Amelia Forthun, daughter of Mrs. John Wam, 309 Twelfth at N, became the bride of Goodwin Hoff of Fargo. The ceremony, was read by Rev. J. D. Runsvold, pastor of the church, and was witnessed by the immediate family members and intimate friends.

Miss Gertie Lobben was at the organ and sounded the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bridal party entered the church. Following the exchange of vows, she played Mendelssohn's march as the recessional. The bride wore a gown of white dove silk with a wedding veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and swansonias. She was attended by her sister, Miss Julia Forthun, who was gowned in pearl grey crepe de chine and carried white asters. Peter Justin of Moorhead attended the bride-groom.

A reception was held in the church parlors, which were decorated with asters, sweet peas and asparagus ferns, following the ceremony. The Misses Alvina and Dena Nelson, Carrie Branten and Gunda Nettum, assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoff left the same afternoon for a wedding trip to the twin cities and eastern points and will return to Fargo to reside. They will be at home at 309 Twelfth st N, after Nov. 1. Mrs. Hoff traveled in a blue tailored suit with accessories to correspond.

Mrs. Hoff has been assistant in the office of Dr. F. W. Briggs for the past two years and Mr. Hoff is connected with the Northwest Mutual Fire Insurance company.

Prof. T. Ullering of Red Lake Falls, Minn., was an out of town guest at the wedding.
