

Hanson-Ullereng

The wedding of Tony Ullereng, well known from his frequent visits in Hannaford, took place last Thursday in New London, Minn., and the New London Times gives the following account of the happy event:

"A wedding of more than usual interest took place today when Mr. Tony C. Ullereng, formerly superintendent of the public schools here, and Miss Hulda Hanson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Hanson, were united in marriage at the Norwegian Lutheran church. The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock. Miss Dora Hanson, a sister of the bride, attended the bride, and Mr. Lester M. Severeld, cashier of the Cloverton State Bank, was groomsman. Rev. Hanson, father of the bride and pastor of the church, read the marriage ceremony. Following the ceremony the bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march, and repaired to the home of the bride's parents where luncheon was served to about thirty.

"Both bride and groom are well and favorably known in this community, and have a large circle of friends who extend to them congratulations and well wishes for a happy wedded life.

"Mr. and Mrs. Ullereng will depart at once on a trip to Norway, leaving New York June 12th on the steamship Stavangerfjord. They will spend the summer vacation in Norway, where Mr. Ullereng's parents reside, and on their return in the fall they will be at home to their friends, at Bagloy, Minn., where Mr. Ullereng will have charge of the public schools during the coming year."
