

Elmon-Wilkinson Wedding

The following from a Superior, Wis., newspaper will be of interest to many of our readers, as the bride's father, Mr. Peter Elmon, is one of the pioneer settlers of Griggs county.

Miss Ora Elmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Elmon, 1616 John avenue, Superior, Wis., on August 1st at Washington, D. C., became the bride of James Richard Wilkinson jr. of Madison, Wis., who has been named American vice-consul at LeHavre, France.

The couple were attended by Professor and Mrs. J. Gordon McKay of Madison. The former is a fraternity brother of Mr. Wilkinson.

Miss Elmon is a well known Superior girl, having received her grade and high school education in the local schools. She was also a student at the University of Wisconsin for two years.

Mr. Wilkinson is a graduate of the law course at the University of Wisconsin. It was while at Madison the couple met.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson have left New York for LeHavre, France, where Mr. Wilkinson will take up the duties of his appointment.
