

Agnes Krokum, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Krokum, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward P. Williams, on Tuesday, April 4th, 1922, at the Lutheran Parsonage in Cooperstown, Rev. G. R. Estrem performing the ceremony, in the presence of Arnold Retzlaff and Esther Retzlaff as witnesses. These young people are both well and favorably known in the community, and have a large number of friends who will join The Enterprise in heartiest congratulations and sincerest wishes for a long and happy journey thru life together. The groom has rented a half section farm from Joe Micklethun, where they will make their future home.
