

Asher Anderson is the piscatorial champion having caught an eight-pound pickerel in the placid waters of Ball Hill creek last Sunday. He was so surprised when he saw the big fellow that he dropped his pole, grabbed the fish and ran up town to show his whale. O. M. Westley also caught a fine string of pickerel Sunday.