

BARTLEY NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Ole Kravig was out cooking for threshers last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Freer and daughter visited at Fred Peterson's last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Healey, Mrs. M. Nolting and John called at Freeman Curtis' home Sunday evening.

The Karnak Ladies Aid will meet in the church basement on Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Trapp will serve.

A very welcome rain came Sunday and Monday. It will delay the threshing for a day or two, but it surely was welcome.

Nora Halverson returned to her home in Wisconsin Friday evening, after spending a week with her sisters, Mrs. Fred Peterson and Mrs. Don Healey.

A farewell party was given for Mr. Ole Kravig and family on Monday evening, as they are departing for their new home in Valley City. Our good wishes go with them.

John Peterson returned to his home in Wisconsin Monday evening after spending two weeks with his son, Fred and family, who have just returned from their trip through Wisconsin and Minnesota.