

The J. W. Canfield family left Tuesday morning for their new home at Lark, N. D. The Canfield's have been here for the past two years and during their stay here made many friends who regretted their departure but hope they will have prosperity and happiness in their new abode.

---

---