

Stolen Auto Is Recovered

Dazey Commercial: On Tuesday night thieves broke into the E. A. Duff garage and stole his Haynes automobile. The robbery occurred shortly before midnight and the robbers were seen in the very act of getting away with the car, but got the machine started and pulled out before they could be apprehended. Gordon Duff discovered the robbers when he was returning from town. They had just gotten the car out of the shed and were trying to get it started. The robbers were experiencing some difficulty in getting the machine to go, evidently not being very familiar with the model. Gordon didn't try tackling the thieves alone, so he hustled into the house after his father. By the time Mr. Duff had arrived on the scene the robbers had gotten the car under way and were pulling out. They went north and west from town. Mr. Duff

(Continued on page three)