

Greenfield Township News

The ladies met at John H. Haugen's last Wednesday. A very large crowd was present. The Ladies Aid will meet next time at the Carl K. Stromme home. The date will be published later.

Miss Hunziker, teacher of the Goplen School, and Mrs. Courts, teacher of the Stromme School, attended the Ladies Aid at the John H. Haugen home.

Nels Ostlund of Spokane, Wash., is visiting at Nels Olson's.

Miss Selma Haugen, a prominent young lady of Greenfield, was over and had a long social interview with Murvin Stromme.

Mrs. Courts spent the week-end at Hannaford.

Olga Kaastad spent Sunday at the Carl K. Stromme home.

John Rustad spent Thursday visiting some friends near the River. He went the distance with his old reliable "Ford" which never gets tired.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kittleson spent Wednesday evening visiting the Stromme folks.

Rev. John Holland, pastor of the Greenfield congregation, and Hans Haugen were entertained at a six o'clock dinner Thursday evening at the Carl K. Stromme home.

Mary and Margery Poyla spent Sunday afternoon visiting Margery and