The children who will take part in the Christmas program at the Church will practice each Saturday afternoon at the school house. They are under the supervision of Mrs. Carl K. Stromme and Mrs. Johnson. These worthy ladies are giving nearly all of their time to this cause, so please don't expect any Christmas presents from them.

John Rustad has been making the rounds helping the neighbors to butcher. He will soon be an expert at the job. Practice makes perfect. Perhaps he is taking this motto as a keepsake, as his mail is containing many letters from the matrimonial bureau.

Carl K. Stromme, who has been on the sicklist, is now recuperating.

Jacob Kittleson spent Friday afternoon at the Carl K. Stromme home, and the evening at the Gust Lind home.

Miss Virginia Potvin left for Minneapolis Saturday evening. She expects to stay until after the holidays.

Mrs. Courts went to Hannaford Friday evening returning to her school work Monday morning.

The women's club of the Nonpartisan League will hold their meeting Monday night at the Stromme School.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson called at the Carl K. Stromme home Thursday evening.
