

Mrs. H. H. Hagen suffered a very painful accident yesterday when her hand was caught in the wringer of the electric washer and the whole hand drawn through the wringer. Fortunately no bones were broken but the hand and fingers were badly bruised, and the ring on one of the fingers was bent so it was necessary to cut it to get it off. The accident was very painful, but a fortunate one in that there were no broken bones.