

School Notes

The grammar room claims to be a very studious grade. They invite any one to come up and visit them and disprove this fact. Mr. Johnson spoke to the grammar room Friday morning on hall rules and, while some pupils still forget occasionally, a very marked improvement in the order in the halls is noticed.

A number of new text books were added to the library in the grammar room last week. Now there are copies for all pupils. Additional seats and desks were also put in to accommodate the twenty-eight pupils who are now enrolled in the seventh and eighth grades.

Last week Signe Nevland fell out of a buggy and because of injuries received has been absent from school for the past week.

Myrtle Bakken is in the hospital at Valley City. She is ill with appendicitis.

The Literary Society gave their first program Friday, which proved to be very interesting. Miss Johnson, Miss Stal, Mrs. O'Dell, Mrs. Isackson and Ione Johnson were visitors.

The constitution and by-laws drawn up by the committee were adopted by the society at this meeting.

The new High School teacher, Mrs. Jos. Chester, arrived Monday. This enables a number of new subjects to be taught.

Foot ball practice is now on every evening after school. Mr. Johnson is coach, and we have high hopes of our team in the future.
