

Al Anderson and Ervin Jensen, of Manistee, Mich., who have been here during harvest and threshing, working for Walter Hemmingson, returned Friday evening to their home, after calling at the Enterprise office to pay the subscription of Mrs. Fred Nelson who also lives at Manistee. The boys find conditions in this state very much different from those in the north where fruits, vegetables, and potatoes are the staple crops rather than grain like it is out here.

---