The Christmas program was very well attended.

There were no services in the church last Sunday on account of bad roads for cars, but arrangements will be made hereafter, so services will be held as usual.

Mrs. M. Magnussen left last Tuesday for St. Paul where she will continue her treatments.

Alfred, Oscar and Willie Magnussen spent Christmas at the Earl Houghton home in Hannaford.

A sleigh load of Karnak people enjoyed a sleigh-ride and a pleasant evening at the Mark Curtis home Sunday evening.

Miss Nettie Peterson, of St. Paul, is spending her week's vacation at the home of her brother, Fred Peterson.

John Wicks is spending his Christmas vacation at the Rising home.

Misses Anna and Mary Kerber, of Fargo, spent the holidays with their parents here.

Leap Year is almost over, and some have made use of their time and chance. Another young school-ma'am of our southern district is going to launch her boat on the sea of matrimony. May the waves be calm.

The Ladbury Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Eva Curtis, Thursday of this week.
