

* * * * *

KARNAK NEWS NOTES

* * * * *

Fred Mosher made a trip to Hannaford Friday.

The Karnak Ladies Aid held a business meeting at John Fleber's on Thursday afternoon, for the purpose of electing new officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Newby returned to New Rockford Friday morning.

J. J. Hogness and daughter Helen were in Fargo the fore part of last week; Mr. Hogness having considerable dental work done.

Miss Olga Olgaard has been helping Mrs. J. J. Hogness a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson called at Reynard Kinn's Tuesday evening.

John Weix boarded the train for Fargo Thursday evening on his way to Spring Valley, Wis., to visit his sister.

Grandma Trapp left Monday morning for Grass Range, Mont., after spending several weeks here and at Rochester, Alexandria and other points. Mrs. E. W. Trapp and Mrs. Fred Peterson accompanied her as far as Hannaford.

Bible study and a Church and Sunday School business meeting will be held at the Mark Curtis home on Thursday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ladbury arrived home Saturday from their trip to the coast. They enjoyed their trip immensely but home looked very welcome to them. "Oh, you North Dakota."

Fred Peterson and Fred Mosher made shipments of pure bred Silver Laced Wyandotte Cockerels Tuesday to Minnesota and South Dakota parties.

J. J. Hogness went to Fargo Monday.

Edgar Curtis had the misfortune to break a wheel on his Ford Sedan Saturday by its sliding on some ice.

Anton and Martin Larson, of Thompkins, Sask., Canada, spent the past week visiting J. J. Hogness and family.