

KARNAK NEWS NOTES

A very fine program was given at the Ladbury school house June 8th. The teacher and pupils may be highly praised for the results of their efforts. St. Mary's Band gave several numbers much appreciated by the audience. Mr. Joseph Johnson gave an excellent talk on the subject "Idealism." The president's address was noticeable because of its absence, but nevertheless he was on the job.

Mr. E. J. Mosher was a Valley City visitor last week.

Maxwell and Harry Ladbury were business visitors at Cooperstown, June 5th, bringing Miss Beatrice home.

A dainty bit of femininity arrived at the Freeman Curtis home June 11. All concerned are doing nicely and Freeman wears a lengthy smile that won't come off.

Mr. William Curtis visited Valley City June 12th.

Many from Sibley Trail autoed to Dazey to the outdoor community meeting. A very nice service was presented. St. Mary's band gave some good numbers with the Dazey Band.

Road operations here have been forced to proceed slowly by the weatherman and tractor trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mosher visited at the Edgar Curtis home June 5th.

Many from here are planning a trip to the Minnesota lakes soon.

Ladies Aid met at Mrs. Ernest Ladbury's home June 17th. Everyone present enjoyed themselves immensely.

Heavy rains of Wednesday night washed out the approaches to the Weller and Stromme bridges.