

KARNAK NEWS NOTES

Rev. Wood came down from Hannaford Thursday to attend the Sunday School and Church business meeting which was held at the Mark Curtis home Thursday evening.

Those from here who attended Ladies Aid at Maxwell Ladbury's Thursday afternoon were Fred Mosher and family, E. W. Trapp, John Nolting, John Weix and Howard Rising.

Henry Curtis returned from Valley City last week after spending a few weeks there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams and son Glen, came over from Blabon, Saturday evening to spend Sunday at the Carlson and Eva Curtis homes.

Hilmer Carlson and John Weix made a trip to Finley Sunday.

Kenneth Curtis returned to Cooperstown Sunday to resume school duties.

Britta Methune spent Sunday at the J. J. Hogness home.

The Ladies Aid members held a special meeting on Saturday evening at Fred Mosher's to decide in what manner the meetings will be carried on this year and what articles are to be made.

Bible study at Fred Peterson's Thursday evening of this week. All welcome.

Alex Youngbeck made a business trip to Breckenridge Saturday evening returning Monday.

Mrs. Fred Peterson called at John Kerber's Saturday afternoon.

Eric Wallin, from Wallum, was in town Thursday.

Alex Youngbeck leaves Karnak this week as another agent has been sent to fill his place here. Mr. Youngbeck does not know for certain where he will locate.

Norman and Howard Kerber were down to Oscar Mosher's Saturday and purchased three Bantam chickens. They intend to go into the chicken business this summer.

Martin Loge left for Fargo on