

KARNAK NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Kravig were up from Valley City, Sunday evening.

A big boy arrived at the Ernest Ladbury home the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mosher and family called at E. W. Trapp's Sunday evening.

Miss Ella Moxstad and Miss Mabel Iverson called on Mrs. Hilmer Carlsson Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynard Kinn and family accompanied Grandma Stewart to Valley City Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Hogness accompanied her sister to Fargo last week. Mrs. Brin went to seek medical aid.

Several threshing rigs have finished another year's run and have pulled in again for another year.

George Medley, of Walum, spoke on Sunday School institute work in the Karnak Church Sunday afternoon.

The Karnak Ladies Aid meets in the Church basement Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Don Healy and Mrs. F. Peterson will serve.

Chas. Ross has sold his home and place of business to Christ Madsen, who will take possession in the near future. Mr. Ross has not decided as to where he will move.