

Wm. Ermatinger and family have moved on the place just vacated by Jacob Sigle.

Hilmer Carlson and Willie Curtis made a business trip to Jamestown Sunday to get the Ford left there by Woodward and family who have deserted this part of the country.

Fred Mosher and family called at Rising's Sunday evening.

The Karnak Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Earl Houghton on the Walter Hemmingson farm Thursday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson called at Maxwell Ladbury's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Ross went to Northwood last week. Mr. Ross will undergo an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Healey will leave this week for River Falls, Wis., where they will remain for the winter.

Don't forget the Hallowe'en party at the church basement Friday evening. Everybody welcome.

Wedding bells will soon ring in this vicinity.

Mrs. M. Magnussen expects to leave this month for St. Paul to take more medical treatments.

We understand Chas. Ross and family expect to make their home in Cooperstown this winter.

(Too late for last week)

Jacob Sigle called off his sale which was to have been held the 29th, because he sold all to the renter who succeeds him.

Iva Hagen is employed at George Kerber's.

John Fieber visited his brother at Oriska Sunday.

John Nolting is digging a cellar and putting a foundation under his house this week.

O carload of sand arrived here from Minnesota for Mr. Larson to be used for a cement floor in his new barn.

Fred Mosher and family and Iva Hagen called at Fred Peterson's Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bert Law, of Luverne, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity, returned to her home Friday afternoon.

R. Kinn and family called at Ernest Ladbury's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Healey called at R. Kinn's Sunday evening.

Henry Curtis expects to make his home at Valley City this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Kravig were town callers Friday. Miss Emma Peterson accompanied them to Valley City Friday evening.

SOME CONSOLATION

"How will you like me as a brother-in-law?"

"All right, I guess. Maw says thank goodness you ain't gonna live with us."

A Pacifist.

When wife says things
Which are not nice,
Then we're for peace
At any price.

of the stage and usurp the leading role.

The United States Navy draws its personnel from no particular calling. Every branch of industry and every profession is represented. It has its quota of men from the theatrical profession, who utilize their ability in an endeavor to amuse their shipmates. They are succeeding remarkably well, if the smiling sailormen in the photograph can be taken as a criterion. It is doubtful tho, if these actors ever played to such an interesting audience or upon a stage constructed in the shadows of the mighty guns of a warship.

KARNAK NEWS NOTES

Martin Loge has taken charge of the St. Anthony Elevator, and is now with his family settled in their new home. We bid them welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trapp spent Sunday and Monday at Hankinson.

A. Ellinson spent Sunday in Fargo