

Gave Hannaford As Home Town

Couple in Trouble in Min- neapolis Gave This Village as Their Residence

Minneapolis Tribune: September's morn was just three hours and 45 minutes old when the fifth precinct gunsquad, prudishly bent on duty, came upon four live models of September Morn at the Calhoun baths. They consisted of two mermaids and two mermisters.

The combined costumes of the quartet wouldn't sag a propless clothesline, 'tis avorred.

The aquatic specimens, after considerable difficulty and an off-shore chase, were temporarily lodged in Central jail as an aquarium.

The gunsquad, as modest a trio as ever said "fie fie" to bare shanked small boy, were making their rounds when at 3:45 a. m. on their first September morning, they heard sounds of splashing in the lake. The splashing was attended by laughter.

The policemen, blushing furiously, ventured to the water's edge and in the offing they could see the four forms frisking about. Some clothing lay on the banks.

"Ship ahoy!" shouted one of the policemen. "Come on in and get pinched."

Two of the bathers obeyed, but the other couple swam off in the darkness. The policemen skirted the shore and after a lengthy search came upon the fleeing couple. They had docked several hundred yards from the boach and were seated on a log.

At the police station the four gave the names of Roy Mernain of Duluth Hazel Miller of Hannaford, N. D., George Mallis of North Dakota and Betty Thurston, of St. Paul. The two women were sent to the workhouse for 20 days on disorderly conduct charges. The two men slipped quietly out of the court room and forfeited bail of $25 each.

You don't have to cup your hands behind your ears to hear the voice of the tempter.

Before Alaska's Future There Must Be C

By ALBERT B. FALL, S.

The big ques are outside and at policies that will will open the way locked up and th 1910 and 1920 the 15 per cent. Th against 65,000 in 1 pioneering white s

Difficulties of gest barriers agai

now dependent wholly on boats opera transportation conditions are no bett there, but it begins nowhere and ends should be connected with the United Canada.