

L. B. Moore is having his garage remodeled and improved and is installing new machinery and equipment, and will soon be in a better position than ever to turn out first-class work promptly. By the middle of this month he will be ready to do acetylene welding, both light and heavy, and will thus be able to save a great deal of expense for his patrons by avoiding the necessity of buying new and expensive parts of broken machinery.

---

---