

J. V. Ober has sold a half interest in his blacksmith shop in this village to Rasmus Olson. Mr. Olson was the former owner of the shop, so he is not a stranger to the place or to the work. They are planning on moving their building from its present location adjoining the hotel to lots they have secured near Lars Hyde's harness shop. Since the state road cut down the street in front of their building, the old location was a very inconvenient one. Now they will have a better location, as well as lower insurance rates.
