

Rev. Sigurd Olsen, pastor of the Union, Lund, Luverne and Ness congregations, has resigned as pastor of those congregations. Rev. Olsen has consented to remain at his post till July 1st, as by that time it is expected a new pastor will have arrived. A committee composed of Ole Sanden, of Lund; Lars Nelson, of Luverne; John J. Haugen, of Union, and Gustav Sola, of Ness, has been appointed to secure a successor to Rev. Olsen, and a call has been extended to Rev. John Haaland, of Wilbur, Wash. It has also been decided to build a parsonage in Luverne, and when this is completed the pastor will reside in Luverne instead of in Cooperstown as at present; Luverne being more conveniently located for all four congregations.
