

Binford Times: A case of diphtheria developed at the Knute Olson home - the early part of the week. Rudolph, the youngest son, became ill. Dr. Truscott, who attended the patient, stated last evening that practically all symptoms of the disease had disappeared.