Oscar Palm, his hired man, and Miss Margaret Pella, had a narrow escape early Sunday morning when returning from near Cooperstown. Arriving at a curve in the road southwest of Cooperstown, the car which was going at a rate of about 30 miles an hour went into the ditch and turned upside down with the three occupants beneath. None of them were hurt, however, but crawled out from under the car, turned it back on its wheels, and proceeded on their way home.
