

Lowell Stafney was taken to the hospital at Fargo last Thursday evening to be operated on for ruptured appendix. The thirteen-year old boy is reported to have stood the operation well, and is already very much improved.