Yesterday afternaon a fire was started in the field on M. A. Thoreion's farm west of Revere by charks from a train pulling through there. The train was rushed into Revere where the train crew was joined by a oridge gang and returned to put out he fire, wherein they succeeded after about 15 or 20 acres of wheat had been burned.