

Further Particulars About Rev. Voldal's Death

Sometime ago the information was received here that Rev. Henrik Voldal had been killed in a runaway accident at Torquay, Sask. From the current issue of "Lutheraneren" we learn the details of the accident, which we present herewith in addition to the account the Enterprise printed two weeks ago.

He had conducted services in Torquay in the forenoon, and started about 2 o'clock p. m. for Bromhead, to hold services there. His son Nils was driving. The horses had not been used for some time and were very lively. They started off at a gallop. The driver tried to restrain them, but at a sharp turn in the road near town, they were going too fast and the buggy tipped over. Rev. Voldal was thrown out, landed with his full weight on his head with the result that his neck was broken. He died within two minutes after the accident.
